Prominent Old-Timer Leaving District

Mr. James M. Reed, who has resided here for almost 30 years, has decided to move to the Coast and is disposing of his household effects on Thursday, July 5th.

He will be missed very much in the community, having served on the Town Council for years and as one-time Mayor of the Town and a School Trustee.

When Mr. Reed came to Didsbury the town was just in its infancy, and during his residence here he has assisted in many ways to make this town what it is today.

We will miss Mr. Reed from our midst and our best wishes for the best of health go with him and that his many years of hard work will be abundantly rewarded in yet many years of pleasure.

DIDSBURY 3, OLDS 2

Didsbury invaded Olds last Wednesday night with five of their regular players and came home victorious. The game was keenly contested all the way through, Olds securing one in the first inning, but were held at bay for six straight innings, scoring another run in the eighth. Didsbury started the rounds in the fourth by scoring one and added two more in the fifth.

Jimmy de Volin pitched real ball, only allowing a few scattered hits, while Olds used two pitchers, Hansen and Gebert.

The game in question was protested by Olds on account of Didsbury leaving the diamond at the end of the eighth inning. At the end of the seventh inning it was really too dark to play, but Olds wanted to play one more inning which Didsbury consented to play. At the end of the eighth inning Olds was still one run behind, so they wanted to play one more inning, which Didsbury would not play in account of the darkness. It was 7:30 before all the Olds team appeared on the diamond. If Olds loses the protest it will no doubt show them the necessity of being on the diamond on time.

DIDSBURY 8, INNISFAIL 5

Didsbury advanced another notch closer to the top of the league by defeating Innisfail Monday night.

Jimmy deVolin on the mound for Didsbury easily disposed a brand of "nuts," and "drops" that kept the northlanders at deep sea. Until the last two innings Jimmy went up in the air, but calmed down so as not to give Innisfail the game. Innisfail used two pitchers: viz: McKane and Hall.

Grade X Paper Routes Are Of Calgary Teachers

Strong protest against the nature and quality of the questions on the Grade X literature paper in the departmental examinations, were raised at a meeting of Grade X teachers of the city, in Central high school, late Monday afternoon. The questions on the paper aroused the ire of the teachers and this meeting was called at once to discuss the situation and draft a protest to the minister of education.

According to an official statement made following the meeting "all were of the opinion that, taking into account the mental development of student of this period of their school life, this paper was entirely too difficult for this grade. By comparison, the papers of XI and XII were clear and simply stated and quite within the comprehension of the student, whereas, the unfortunate ones were subjected to a much harder ordeal." — Calgary Herald

Signs Of A Better Era

The period of prosperity now so generally prevalent throughout Canada and the United States, and the marked rise in industrial activity in all lines all over this continent, and which is being felt to a steadily increasing extent in Great Britain and other European countries, seems to present to some ill-informed minds and agitators an opportunity to once again revive the old "strike" weapon. When times are hard, business depressed, with large numbers of men unemployed and anxiously seeking work, the agitator urging men rejoicing in employment to "strike" has a hard row to hoe, but when business is brisk, the vast majority of men employed, and an increasing demand for labor, the agitator sees his opportunity to make trouble.

Fortunately, both employers and employees have learned from past bitter experiences that industrial warfare does not pay, any more than does war between nations; that the victor suffers almost as great damage as does the vanquished; and the general public which after all is the greatest sufferer is now more and more inclined to sternly oppose the calling of a "strike."

Relations between the bosses on the one side and the men on the other have been bettered and become more cordial in recent years through a realization of a truth, which ought to have been recognized long ago, that, in the final analysis, their interests are common. Employers today do not regard their men as mere machines, but as real and active partners in the success of the business in which they are jointly engaged, and the average workman today recognizes that his employer has huge problems and difficulties to face in successfully administering and maintaining his business in a highly organized and fiercely competitive world field.

Recently an attempt was made to induce all the employees of the Toronto Street Railway system to go out on strike to enforce a series of demands made by them. To tie up the street railway system in a city like Toronto would be a public calamity, resulting in great inconvenience to everybody and an enormous loss to the entire community. The Toronto street railway is municipally owned,—that is, it belongs to all the people. The management pointed out that to meet the men's demands would necessitate an increase in fares. This brought the issue right home to every resident, and particularly to all classes of workmen in the city who are among the principal users of the cars. Had the system been privately owned, people would probably have felt that any increased expense to meet the men's demands could be met out of profits, and that any increase in fares was unnecessary, but in a municipally-owned system, operated to provide service rather than to accumulate profits, the statement of the management was accepted not as a bluff, and that either increased fares, or operating deficits to be made up out of increased taxes, must result.

So, when the matter of calling a "strike" finally came to a vote of the street railway employees, the men themselves rejected it by a ten to one vote in favor of arbitration, a very healthy indication of sane thinking on the part of the men and of the present trend of public sentiment.

Another Toronto labor incident may be cited as indicating the newer and more reasonable point of view now actuating labor men. Structural steel workers on three of the largest buildings in the city went on strike to compel their employers to establish a closed shop and employ only union men, which would be a reversal of the Company's policy during the last forty years of making no distinction between union and non-union men but treating them all frankly and alike. The steel workers have sought to induce other branches of the building trades to go on strike in sympathy with them, but without success, and even the International Union, it is understood, refuses to endorse the attitude of the strikers.

The fact is becoming increasingly evident that in this age the bludgeon methods of war are growing more and more in disfavor, no matter in what direction or cause they may be employed. People are becoming more insistent all the time that causes of dispute, whether between nations, or in the industrial arena, or between individuals, be settled through the orderly processes of law and arbitration, and not by flying at each other's throats and engaging in combat in which countless thousands of absolutely innocent persons are made to suffer.

Mr. John Melling, Fenner, Alta., writes:—"I am a returned soldier, and when I came home from overseas I suffered greatly with dysentery. The doctor said it was chronic and did not think it could be relieved. However, he doctored me for quite a while, but did me no good. One day the druggist asked me if I had ever tried

"On his recommendation I bought a bottle and after I had taken it got some relief, so I got two more, and have never had the dysentery since 1925."

Announces New Discovery

Artificial Teeth Can Be Made Without Plate, Says Toronto Dentist

Dr. F. W. Barbour, Toronto dentist, announced a remarkable discovery in which false teeth are made to stay in place by means of suction called "marginal retention," for use on either the upper or lower jaw. By this the vulcanite plate formerly covering the palate of those who had artificial upper teeth and which used to interfere with diction, and the sense of taste, will be done away with, relieving considerable discomfort to the wearer.

Alberta's Coal Resources

Official Figures Place Total At Over a Billion Tons

An estimate of Alberta's coal resources, made recently by the International Geological congress, places the total at 1,035,629 million tons, according to figures received by the provincial government. This is 14 per cent. of the world's coal supply, 72 per cent. of the British Empire's resources, and 87 per cent. of Canada's resources.

The mines presently operating in Alberta are capable of producing 15,000,000 tons annually, and it has been estimated that if this production were increased 100 times, that the available supply would not be exhausted for 18 centuries.

Honored Earl Of Asquith

Southern Mountain Peak and Western Town Named After Him

The name of the late Earl of Oxford and Asquith is likely to live not only in history, but in geography, for two places on the map were named in his honor during his long term of office as Prime Minister.

The first such honor was paid Mr. Asquith by Sir Ernest Shackleton, who named a newly-discovered peak in the vicinity of the South Pole, Mount Asquith. The second was the bestowal of his name on Asquith Town, in Saskatchewan.

EFFORTS MADE TO PUSH WORK ON H. B. ROAD

Ottawa.—Work continues to be pushed on the Hudson Bay Railway, with considerable grading in progress. Whether the road will be finished by the end of 1929, as anticipated, cannot yet be said, but all efforts are being made during the season to finish those parts that can be worked on.

The northward course of the road occurs at Mileage 356 (from The Pas), a few miles northeast of Kettle Rapids. From there the railway will run almost due north to Fort Churchill, avoiding contact with Fort Nelson altogether. Churchill is at Mileage 512, which would indicate that 156 miles of steel still remain to be laid.

With regard to the Fort Churchill itself, officials of the department of railways recall that when Hon. Mr. Dunning was asked as to his policy respecting real estate speculation there, he declared that the government had expropriated all lands on the east side of the harbor, where the dock works will be constructed. Compensation for this will be decided in the exchequer court in due time.

Most of the land for the townsite of Churchill was the property of a settler named Beach, who established himself there and homesteaded many years ago. He is now dead, but his heirs are scattered throughout Canada and they will be recompensed for the expropriations.

The loss of the dredge off the Labrador coast last year may delay the harbor works for some time. Throughout the winter a great deal of material was salvaged at Port Nelson and forwarded to Fort Churchill by motor-tractor; other material has been floated up the bay.

An aeroplane base will be established within a few weeks as soon as the ice conditions in the immediate vicinity of Fort Churchill have become such as to enable the department of national defence planes now at Cormorant Lake, north of The Pas, to make the trip to the port.

Caught In Snowstorm

Colorado Tourists Marooned At Summit Of Pike's Peak

Colorado Springs, Colo.—Twenty-five tourists have been rescued from the summit of Pike's Peak after being marooned there for 24 hours by the worst spring snowstorm to visit this region in several years.

Several children were in the group, which had been isolated by great heaps of snow which covered the upper regions of the 14,000-foot mountain. Word of their plight was brought here when telegraph communications were restored and a snow plow fought through the drifts and reached the stranded tourists.

"Hints" With Cruisers

Warsaw.—The Government has ordered three light cruisers to anchor in the mouth of the Vistula as a gesture to Danzig that Poland will brook no interference with her development of merchant marine. This action followed recent difficulties with Danzig Port and Customs authorities, who refused to allow several Polish freighters docking or anchoring facilities at Danzig piers. Danzigers protest that the ships are a menace, and constitute a danger to the safety of the city.

Privy Council Ruling Important To Dominions

Judgment Rendered In Regard To Writ Of Habeas Corpus

London.—A judgment of grave constitutional importance to His Majesty's subjects in Britain and the overseas Dominions has been rendered by the judicial committee of the Privy Council on an appeal from Nigeria.

In effect, Their Lordships decided that although by the Judicature Act, various courts have been combined into one high court, each judge of that court still has jurisdiction to entertain an application for writ of habeas corpus either in term time or vacation, and he is bound to hear and determine such application on its merits, notwithstanding any previous judicial findings.

This principle must apply to the Supreme Court of Nigeria, they said in allowing the appeal of Eshugbayi Eleko, native chief, from a decision of the Nigerian Supreme Court which had found that Mr. Justice Tew, of Nigeria, had no jurisdiction to entertain Eshugbayi's motion for a writ of habeas corpus.

Must Make Restitution

Chicago Mayor and Three Others Owe $1,732,279 To City Treasury

Chicago, Ills.—Mayor William Hale Thompson, Michael J. Flaherty, George F. Harding and Percival B. Coffin, public administrator and three real estate experts, were found in circuit court to have conspired together in hiring the real estate men to do special work under the last Thompson administration at a cost to the city of $1,732,279. Judge Fugo Friend ordered the defendants to make restitution of that sum to the city treasury.

The court, terminating the two two year old suit, found the conspiracy had a two-fold purpose, "financing the political activities of the Thompson administration, and for the private benefit of the members of the conspiracy."

Had Narrow Escape

Window Cleaner Clings To Sill On Third Story Until Rescued

Winnipeg.—Clinging desperately with his fingers to a window sill on the third storey of the Grain Exchange building here, Steve Habuza miraculously saved himself from death. He was cleaning windows and was adjusting his safety belt when the heavy steel sash fell, knocking him off the space. As he plunged downward he caught the sill just before the sash crashed down on his fingers, crushing them badly. He held on with all his strength until his plight was discovered and he was rescued.

Tribute For Pilot

Credit For Latest Atlantic Flight Given To Stultz

London.—Talking to London's assembled newspaper men recently, Miss Earhart declared firmly and emphatically that during her brief stay in England she did not want to be the subject of "hero worship."

"I have done nothing to merit it," she said.

"It is because I am a woman that I have been forced into the spotlight. The credit for the success of the flight is due to Stultz. He controlled the plane practically throughout and was just splendid."

The age of the head of the family will not exceed 40 years except in particular circumstances where the family is regarded as very desirable, in which case the age limit will be raised to 45 years.

Scottish Youths For Canada

Inspector Comes To Dominion To Study Conditions Here

Toronto.—James M. Maltman is relief inspector of the Glasgow, Scotland, parish council. Interest in migration problems affecting the old country has brought him to Canada for the purpose of studying conditions as they have to do with youths who come out under the land settlement act.

"There are 8,000 people in our parish receiving relief," he said. "We quite appreciate that migration to Canada is not a solution to our problem, but we do feel that many Scotch lads, after they are hand-picked, tested and trained in farm work, may make good settlers for Canada."

"We are most particular as to what type of boy we train and never accept those who have been in a reformatory or are of doubtful character." He brought out with him 30 youths who are already placed on farms in the Dominion.

Storm Takes Heavy Toll

Tornadoes Cause Death and Destruction In Southwestern States

Kansas City, Mo.—Three more deaths and millions of dollars of property damage were added to the toll taken by storms in the Southwest.

Tornadoes again visited communities in Oklahoma, and high winds, floods and hail scattered destruction in sections of Kansas and Missouri.

The three deaths reported recently, brought the total dead to 12 and more than a score of names were added to the long list of injured.

The Red Cross reported 2,200 persons homeless, many of them destitute.

Tragedy In Belgrade

Two Members Of Serbian Parliament Are Killed By Radical Deputy

Belgrade, Jugo-Slavia.—Infuriated by frequent interruption and the refusal of the opposition to withdraw insulting words, Punica Ratchitch, Radical deputy, drew a revolver during a session of the national assembly and fired all six rounds into the group of opposition members.

Paul Raditch, nephew of Stefan Raditch, the peasant leader, was killed; Stefan Raditch himself seriously wounded. The Croat deputy, Dr. Basaritchek, was so gravely wounded that he died on his way to the hospital.

Dr. Pernar and two other deputies, Grandja and Jelasitch, also received bullet wounds of a dangerous nature.

This was the culmination of fierce controversies and hand-to-hand fights which have recently taken place in the Jugo-Slav parliament. The crime is considered the most terrible since the memorable assassination of King Alexander and Queen Draga, just 25 years ago this month. It has thrown the whole of Jugo-Slavia into a ferment of excitement.

Parliament had scarcely opened this morning when the opposition, led by Stefan Raditch, began its obstructionist tactics against the government's legislation in the forefront of which is ratification of the Nettune convention with Italy.

At the height of the angry debate Stefan Raditch, turning to the government benches and shaking his finger, shouted: "You are not men; you are swine!"

Lynching Is Condemned

Population Of Texas City Is Stirred Over Outrage

Houston, Texas.—Stirred by the first lynching here in 50 years, municipal, county and state officials joined in an intensive search for eight unmasked white men who took Robert Powell, 24-year-old negro slayer, from a hospital cot and hanged him from a bridge.

The fact that the lynching took place while the national political spotlight is turned on the city caused officials particular concern and quick steps were taken in an effort to fix responsibility.

An appropriation of $10,000 was voted by the city council for an investigation by a committee of six, two members of which are negroes.

Says Navy Best Defence

Preserves Unity Of Empire Declares President Of League

Saint John, N.E.—Treaties and pacts could never take the place of the "sure shield"—the navy declared President Sam Harris, Toronto, before the annual meeting of the Navy League here. The unity of the Empire, he said, depended on the naval defence. He asserted Canada should pay a fair share towards protection of its overseas trade.

The session was taken up with a presentation of the financial statement of the organization, which showed the League with highly satisfactory resources. Endowment fund securities amounted to $455,000. Surplus in the general fund, December 31, 1927, was $19,721.53, it was reported.

NOBILE PARTY RECEIVE RELIEF AFTER LONG WAIT

King's Bay, Spitzbergen.—General Umberto Nobile and five of the crew of the lost dirigible Italia were found on an ice floe by Major Maddalena, Italian aviator. He dropped them guns, ammunition, food and cigarettes, while the castaways danced joyfully about their desolate encampment. Maddalena was unable to make a landing.

This first relief for the Italian explorers came twenty-six days after their dirigible, returning from a flight over the North Pole and weighted with ice, suddenly descended, smashed the gondola in which Nobile and eight of his crew were riding, and carried the remainder in the unmanageable balloon northward before a gale.

The S-55, a huge seaplane, was sent from Italy by the Italian Government in the belief that its wide cruising radius would be more useful in the search than the smaller seaplanes furnished by the Swedish and Norwegian governments.

The S-55 was manned by Maddalena, Lieut. Cagna as co-pilot, with radio operator Abelli and Mechanic Sergeant Rampini, who had come with the plane on its flight from Italy.

All Europe, moved for days by the dramatic plight of Nobile in hearing and seeing relief planes overhead but being unable to give them position, tonight was anxiously waiting for word from Amundsen.

Captain H. Riiser-Larsen returned from his fourth reconnoitering trip over the ice without having seen anything of Nobile or the other two parties of the Italia's crew.

Larsen said the radius of flight of his machine was too small and suggested an icebreaker be sent to North Cape to rescue the three men of Nobile's crew who left him in an attempt to walk to the mainland.

The rescue ship Braganza is unable to advance further toward the east because of packed ice.

Fear Entertained For Missing Trapper In Northern Alberta

Edmonton, Alta.—The hazards faced by the men who go into the northland in quest of furs is once again exemplified by reports from northern detachments of the Alberta Provincial Police reaching Edmonton headquarters.

A telegram received from Constable Baynes of Fort Fitzgerald, says that fears have been expressed for the safety of Walter Reamer, a trapper from the northernmost post in Alberta. The trapper is now long overdue, and a party headed by the constable are on the trail in search of the missing man.

In his lonely shack on the Athabasca river, 70 miles down river from the town of Athabasca, John Wickstrom, 70, old-time trapper, was found dead in his bed. It is thought that he peacefully passed away in his sleep.

Planning Westward Flight

Trip Not Yet Properly Accomplished Says Harry Lyon

Sydney, N.S.W.—Harry W. Lyon, the American navigator of the trans-Pacific plane "Southern Cross," announced that when he and his fellow countryman, James W. Warner, the plane's radio operator, returned to the United States, they would prepare for a flight from Ireland to America. He added that they would invite Captains Charles Kingsford-Smith and Charles Ulm, the Australian pilots, to participate in it.

Lyon contended that the westward crossing of the Atlantic had not yet been properly accomplished.

NASH presents a New and Finer Motor Car

New Twin Ignition Motor New Salon Bodies

"The three new Nash Series, which are being introduced everywhere today, achieve the ambition of my manufacturing career.

"They represent an entirely new type of motor car, priced moderately, but offering you all the beauty and quality and performance heretofore exclusive to very expensive automobiles.

"To create such a car we had to develop an entirely new type of design and invest over $2,500,000 in dies and machinery alone.

"Both the Salon bodies and the high compression motors which power these new models exemplify the most radically modern advancement in body craftsmanship and engineering.

"Naturally space precludes the full listing of all features but I do want to draw your attention to a number of the outstanding attractions such as—

"—Twin ignition, high compression, Bohlnalite aluminum alloy pistons with Invar-struts, 7-bearing crankshaft with hollowed crankpins, Bijur centralized chassis lubrication, Moudaille and Lovejoy shock absorbers, Biflex-Nash bumpers and bumpers, chrome plating over nickel for all exterior metal ware, double-drop frame, one-piece Salon fenders and longer wheelbase lengths.

"This new-type engineering of the '400' motors makes them by far the best performing cars I have ever built.

"I don't think anyone will ever want to use all the speed and power they deliver.

"Equipment is absolutely complete at the factory list price and you need buy no extras except a spare tire.

"If my judgment is worth anything you will find it well worth while today to examine this new automobile development with the greatest care."

GIGANTIC PLANS FEATURE STAMPEDE PREPARATIONS

Calgary has become famous all over the world for its great annual celebration, the Calgary Exhibition and Stampede. An indication of its success is in the following attendance 1924, 147,219; 1925, 175,000; 1926, 197,471; 1927, 210,879.

This year the combined celebration will be held July 9th to 15th when His Excellency, Viscount Willingdon, Governor-General of Canada, and Lady Willingdon will be present and participate in many events during the week.

The opening feature, the Stampede Parade, will this year surpass all others. Headed by His Excellency, the Governor-General and a number of men of prominence, followed by the Royal Air Force Band direct from London, it will be of special interest. There will be at least fifteen bands and the parade will be seen by fifty or sixty thousand people.

Alberta has 11.0 passenger automobiles per hundred of population or approximately one car to every nine men, women and children in the province according to figures issued from Ottawa during the past week. In this respect Alberta stands fourth among the provinces of the Dominion, Ontario leading with 12.1 cars per hundred of population and Saskatchewan and British Columbia following with 1.11 per hundred. Corresponding figures for the other provinces are: New Brunswick 4.4, Nova Scotia 4.8, Prince Edward Island 4.7 and Quebec 3.8.

The use of the combine is expected to be more general than ever in the 1928 harvest. In 1927 there were 174 combines in the Prairie Provinces, 118 being in Saskatchewan, 46 in Alberta and 10 in Manitoba. In 1927 there was a total of 237 in Saskatchewan, 221 in Alberta and 22 in Manitoba, 774 in all.

There is considerable tree plant activity along the 51-acre 1st division of the Canadian Pacific Railway. At Shuswap alone twenty-five hundred of small trees were received the other day from the Forestry Branch at Indian Head, Saskatchewan and all are now planted. Cluny and other villages are competing actively.

Modern Miracles

On Victoria Day, Premier Mackenzie King gave a broadcasted message from Ottawa to a 100,000 crowd assembled in Hyde Park, London, England, and a little later High Commissioner Larkin telephoned from the British metropolis to exchange greetings with reference to the incident. Either event would have been regarded as a miracle not so very long ago, yet the two combined scarcely caused a ripple of public attention, so used have we become to modern marvels.

The trouble about worshipping ancestors is that people who do it seldom provide the same privilege for posterity.

Prizes for the weekly papers in English: second, C. J. Allbon, The Asquith Record, Asquith, Saskatchewan; Third, C. W. Peterson, The Farm and Ranch Review, Calgary, Alberta.

For the French section, prizes were awarded respectively to Adju-tor Savard, La Patrie, Montreal, P.Q.; J. M. Estival, La Soliel, Quebec, P.Q.; and to Charles Gautier, Le Droit, Ottawa, Ontario.

The judges for the English section formed into an adjudicating committee headed by Dr. James W. Robertson, chairman of the Central Council of the Canadian Red Cross Society were: Dr. Lorne Pierce, Editor, the Ryerson Press, Toronto; J. F. B. Livesay, general manager, Canadian Press, Toronto; J. M. Elson, Canadian Author's Association, Toronto; Professor G. M. Wrong, History Dept., University of Toronto.

For the French section the adjudicators were: Mr. Leon Lorraine, of the Commercial High Studies School, Montreal; Mr. Robert Choquette, professor of the University of Montreal, and Dr. Victor Morin, past president of the Canadian Authors' Association.

The contest was entered by sixty-one papers, but dozens more contributed editorials without actually entering the contest. Several million readers were thereby informed that it was Henri Dunant who actually originated the idea of Red Cross for the world, whereas, formerly, only a vague idea that Florence Nightingale had done so, existed in many people's minds. Florence Nightingale, however, was publicly acknowledged by Dunant in a speech in London in 1872, as having been his inspiration.

Indians Make Big Profits

Found Seal-Fishing Good Along West Coast Of Vancouver

Fur seals have been unusually plentiful this season along the west coast of Vancouver Island, and the Indian, to whom pelagic sealing is permitted if guns are not used, have brought in a large number of skins for sale. The price is high and some of the hunters have been making big profits.

The weather was stormy at times, and the Indians, in the frail dugout canoes, had no easy time during the hunt, but are well pleased as the salmon fishing has not been any too good owing to the rough seas.

Farmers' Marketing Tour

Canadian National Railways' Tour To Great Britain and Denmark, 1928

The next morning saw us out even earlier. At 8.20 we were viewing the Snow Hill Police Station adjoining Smithfield Market, the finest police station in Great Britain, yet, notwithstanding its modernity, spaciousness and hygienic advantages and the interesting pictures of lovely ladies which we found in the policemen's recreation room, none of us really wished to stay.

From this last word in police stations we went to the smoke houses and provision establishment of Messrs. George Bowles, Nicholls & Co., Ltd., where we were shown sides of bacon from twelve countries, including Canada. Mr. George J. Nicholls, Managing Director, compared the various qualities. Canadian bacon, he said, was placed fourth in public favor. First English, then Irish, next Danish, and then Canadian. Comparison was also made with butter, cheese and eggs. Two Chinese eggs six years old were broken and shown to be perfectly "fresh" so far as edibility was concerned. Both had large yolks and were examples of what eggs should be. A good deal was learned from Mr. Nicholls regarding the requirements of the British market and whose remarks brought forth many questions from the party.

We were now taken in hand by the Central Markets Committee of the Corporation of the City of London, who showed us Smithfield Meat Market and Spitalfields Fruit and Vegetable Market including the extensions which are being made to the latter at a cost of $10,000,000. We had scarcely time to reflect upon the history of this seven-hundred-years-old market-place, the largest meat market in the world, except to recall here, that Wat Tyler was slain by Sir William Walworth in the presence of King Richard II., and that it had been the scene of the burning of Protestant martyrs, for soon we were travelling through aisles of meat which never seemed to end. There were 5,000 tons upon the hooks. All this meat had come into the market that morning and would be out of it by three that afternoon! Such is the meat-consuming power of Greater London. One of the secrets of the expeditious handling of meat is the Great Western Railway's depot which lies immediately below the market, obviating the carting of meat through the streets. Access from the depot to the market is by two hydraulic lifts from each of which 100 to 150 sides of beef can be cleared every hour. Every facility was afforded for asking questions of anybody in the markets, both meat and fruit and vegetable, and a mass of information was obtained having a direct bearing on the marketing of Canadian products.

After three hours of tireless investigation we were ready for the Mansion House and the reception of the Lord Mayor and Lady Mayoress, Sir Charles and Lady Batho. In this imposing house, where since the 18th century, the Lord Mayors of London have received kings, princes, statesmen and other representatives from all lands, we were given a cordial welcome and made to feel at home. During a pleasant and privileged half hour we were shown the old kitchens with the spits on which used to be roasted barons of beef, entertained in the great Egyptian Hall, and accorded a view of the City's gold plate.

Leaving the Mansion House with some regret at the shortness of the stay, we made the brief walk to the Guildhall as guests of the Central Markets Committee.

We entered the Guildhall with a feeling akin to reverence. If London is the heart of the Empire, the Guildhall is the heart of London. It has been the centre of stirring episodes throughout many centuries and the pillars of the Great Hall which were licked by flames to a height of thirty feet, still bear the marks of the Great Fire of London. Here the great images Gog and Magog are still on guard, and in this room on July 29th, 1915, Sir Robert Borden was accorded the Freedom of the City of London, and tribute was paid to the gallant and tenacious defence of the Canadian Force in the Second Battle of Ypres.

Our luncheon table was set in the famous Art Gallery, a colorful surrounding of rare historic and rich artistic interest. It was fitting that Alderman W. P. Neil should preside at a luncheon to Canadian farmers for he was foremost in the efforts which secured the abolition of the embargo on Canadian cattle. With us was the High Commissioner, Mr. Larkin. The principal toast was "The Great Dominion of Canada," in reply to which a striking tribute to the opportunities which Canada presents was given by the Hon. George Langley, who revealed that as an English workman he had passed and re-passed the Guildhall daily for eight years or more, but never in his wildest dreams had he thought he would one day dine there! It is difficult to convey the cordiality, the spirit of kinship which marked the speeches on this occasion when London accorded us her highest honor in this ancient hall, or the pride with which the Corporation's most treasured possession was brought from the vaults for our inspection. This was the scepter which for over 1,000 years has been symbol of the City's dignity and is carried before the newly crowned monarch at every coronation. With this we were shown a purse that was the gift of Queen Elizabeth. The dated souvenir match container ornamented with the City's coat of arms given to us after the luncheon will be treasured by every member of the party, no less than the memory of the great day on which Canadian farmers were guests of the Empire's Capital.

Entertainment gave place in the afternoon to a session with representatives of the Provision and Grain Trades of London, under the auspices of the London Chamber of Commerce. Here we listened to plain talk on both sides which brought forth information of the greatest value. An eventful day concluded with an evening at Drury Lane, the largest and most famous of London's theatres, where we saw "The Desert Song," one of the most successful musical shows ever presented in London.

Devotional Reading:—Psalm 119:33-40.

Explanations and Comments

The Religious Training Of A Jewish Boy. Deuteronomy 6:4-9. Jehovah is the one absolute God; He must be loved with all the heart, soul and strength. The commandments must be laid to heart, must be taught to children, must be constant subject of thought and conversation everywhere and at all times—at home, and when on the way, in the evening on lying down, and in the morning on rising. They must be bound upon the hand for a sign, and worn as bands (frontlets) between the eyes. This "sign" was worn upon the arm in much the same way as children tie knots in their handkerchiefs, or change rings on their fingers, to remind the wearer of something he should not forget.

"Lord God of hosts, be with us yet, Lest we forget—lest we forget!"—Kipling.

This was the teaching of Deuteronomy, and we may be sure that this was the instruction which Paul received while a lad in his father's house at Tarsus.

"Oh, if our children all were brought Betimes to God and duly taught His law to honor and obey, Pre-eminently blest were they; And bound as with a sevenfold cord Would be our nation to the Lord."

How Much Water Should Baby Get? A Famous Authority's Rule

By Ruth Brittain

Baby specialists agree nowadays, that during the first six months, babies must have three ounces of fluid per pound of body weight daily. An eight pound baby, for instance, needs twenty-four ounces of fluid. Later on the rule is two ounces of fluid per pound of body weight. The amount of fluid absorbed by a breast fed baby is best determined by weighing him before and after feeding for the whole day; and it is easily calculated for the bottle fed one. Then make up any deficiency with water.

Giving baby sufficient water often relieves his feverish, crying, upset and restless spells. If it doesn't, give him a few drops of Fletcher's Castoria. For these and other ills of babies and children such as colic, cholera, diarrhea, gas on stomach and bowels, constipation, sour stomach, loss of sleep, underweight, etc., leading physicians say there's nothing so effective. It is purely vegetable—the recipe is on the wrapper—and millions of mothers have depended on it in over thirty years of ever increasing use. It regulates baby's bowels, makes him sleep and eat right, enables him to get full nourishment from his food, so he increases in weight as he should. With each package you get a book on Motherhood worth its weight in gold.

Just a word of caution. Look for the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher on the package so you'll be sure to get the genuine. The forty-cent bottles contain thirty-five doses.

When they were in the car, Maudie finished the conversation. "Helmi is doing well, but don't fuss her up by taking her out. They get to know too much. Now Mrs. Bell when she spoke to me said I would have to get some one to wash; Helmi wouldn't be able to do the washing, especially the hanging out of the clothes, on account of nursing her baby—she might catch cold. But Bob, she does it and washes beautifully. I just kept quiet. So we're saving two dollars a week there. Now, how's that? Am I a good wife for a poor man? I'll say I am. Those foreign girls are strong as horses. Well, she's good to the baby, anyway, but don't spoil her, for Heaven's sake. The more you do for people the more they expect—take it from me!"

To which Mr. Herriott replied: "I bet she'd like a ride, though; she's only a kid. She's younger than you are, and I think she looks pretty pale and tired sometimes."

"Look here," said his plump little wife, asserting her dignity. "Who is running the house?"

GUM-DIPPED TIRES

W. N. U. 1739

And when she said it she looked so utterly sweet and plump and pink and white, so much like a spoiled but very pretty child, that her husband kissed her and forgot all about Helmi.

Helmi had a friend in the bread man, who gave her snatches of news from the outside world. The soldiers were going away soon. They would go direct to England, to Salisbury Plains. His boy was with them—"as good a boy as ever stepped." But he would go—"a chip off the old block." He had been in South Africa in the War—was mentioned in dispatches, too—but nobody knows anything about it now. The world soon forgets. These soldiers will be forgot, too, for all the bands are playin' for them now.

Helmi was not unhappy. She had pleasure in her work and in caring for little Lili, who grew lovelier every day. The Herriott baby was a heavy jowled child who slept well and cried profoundly. "Has she taken to it yet?" the grandmother asked, each time she came.

From her room Helmi could look north to the railway tracks and see the Peace River train come in as it crossed the street, moving silently along, like a square, black, jointed snake. She found herself watching for it every Tuesday and Saturday. It was queer that Sim had not answered her letters.

One night in April, when Mr. and Mrs. Herriott were away to a dance, Roland, their baby, grew suddenly ill—the usual symptoms, little hot hands, fevered breath and restless tossing head. Helmi was walking the floor with him when the parents came in at two o'clock in the morning.

"Lay him down and let him cry," said his mother, as she threw her cloak on the dining-room table; "it's his teeth! All kid's have it; you're spoiling him."

"You'd better send for the doctor," said Helmi. "See how red he is—I am afraid of tulirokko—the red fever."

"Nonsense!" Maudie Herriott had just come from "The Macdonald." She had danced every dance and the exhilaration of it was still in her brain. The idea of this Finn girl saying the doctor should be brought!

Helmi was frightened. The baby's eyes were burning and rolled uncertainly, and the night was heavy with the sudden heat of spring. "Please do get a doctor, Mrs. Herriott," she pleaded; "it's bad, this sudden sickness; sometimes it brings on convulsions and babies die."

Mrs. Herriott took another look at the baby and felt his head and his hands. "Oh, he's all right—his head is a little hot, but his hands are cool—feel!"

The finger tips were cold. "Well, I am going to bed; I've had a hard day, and there's another ahead of me tomorrow. I don't see that there's any sense running up a hill with a doctor when there's no need. All kids get sick sometimes, and the less notice you take of them the better."

The next day Lili grew hot and restless and Helmi sent for a doctor. In three days the doctor declared it to be scarlet fever, and the Herriotts decided that both children should go to the Isolation Hospital.

"Let me stay and keep them," pleaded Helmi; "I cannot let my baby go—she will fret for me—she will die among strangers. Please Mrs. Herriott, let me stay, I will work for you for a year—for five years—for nothing—if you will let me stay here and keep her. And I will nurse Roland, too." Helmi was rocking herself from side to side in her anguish.

Mrs. Herriott did not hesitate a moment. "No, Helmi, we can't do that—they'll be all right at the hospital—it's the right place."

"But my little Lili will die! I nurse my Lili!"

"Well, you'll have to wean her—they'll look after that. I can't help it anyway, so don't stare at me."

Helmi sprang to her feet and shook her mistress fiercely.

"I care! I love my baby; you do not love yours. You can send yours. If he dies you will be glad. If my Lili dies I die too. Let me keep both, please, please!"

"Say, Bob, listen to this—wouldn't it jar you! Helmi, you have your nerve. Now, listen, they are both going. I guess if the Isolation Hospital is good enough for Roland Herriott it will do for Lili, so cut out all the fireworks and get them ready."

baby smile, was Maudie Herriott, the petted child and wife, but hard and cruel as any toothless old crone.

Both mothers rode in the ambulance to the hospital, and, strangely enough it was Mrs. Herriott who became hysterical when the nurse took her baby from her.

The brown-eyed nurse who had received Lili read the misery in Helmi's white face, and patted her shoulder kindly. "I do not think your baby will have it very hard—she is a lovely little thing and looks quite strong. Don't worry over her, because we have splendid success with our babies here. She will have every care, I promise you. No, she will not fret much."

Helmi kissed her hand with a rapt look in her eyes, but she could not speak. Her heart would have broken when she saw Lili carried into the fever ward—away from her, with a door shut between them, if the kindly touch of the nurse's hand had not been laid on her shoulder. The hand was warm, human and strong, and its touch went with her when she went down the dark stairs to the ambulance which waited at the door.

Mrs. Herriott was weeping violently, but Helmi sat tight-lipped and pale, but tearless. The red cross on the frosted glass of the ambulance door held her eyes with gruesome fascination; to her excited imagination it seemed as if it were painted with blood.

When returning they were stopped at First Street by the closing of the black and white gates, for the afternoon train was going out—a special, carrying the soldiers. The station platform swarmed with people, and a band blared its music. Helmi hated the sound of it. How could any band play when there was so much trouble in the world and her Lili so sick? Once when she was a child at home she had drawn her hand across the plastered wall, and some of the plaster had caught below her finger nails, making her sick with a horrible sensation. The band music brought the feeling back to her again.

There were flags on the train, hanging out of the windows, fluttering like little red wounded things licking at the side of the car with red tongues. Helmi shivered as she watched them. From the window of the ambulance she could see the swarming crowds, but the train hid from her view the farewell scenes.

As the train moved slowly out, Helmi could see the faces gliding past her. Most of the soldiers were at the windows on the side next the station platform, waving to friends. Just as the last car went by, gathering up speed now, one man sat moodily looking out of the north window with eyes that saw nothing. Helmi from where she sat in the ambulance was not more than six feet from him as he passed. When his face came into view, she beat upon the glass like a mad thing, screaming: "Jack! Jack! look at me!" But though she saw him so plainly, he did not see her, and the train went on its way. Helmi's voice, like the sobbing of many others, was lost in the blare of the bands.

Pekin, China, is making its campaign against speeders effective. After beheading some of the chauffeurs who exceeded the 15-mile speed limit, officials hung the heads in boxes at street intersections and over them placed signs in English and Chinese calling attention to the law and the consequences to those who ignored it.

Teeth and Health

GREENSTAIN

You are anxious that your child should have nice white teeth, and you are endeavoring to get him to form the habit of daily care with perhaps good success.

But you notice a dark greenish stain on his teeth right next to the gum, and which persists in spite of careful brushing.

This, then, is "greenstain," and is commonly found on both the temporary and permanent teeth of children, being generally confined to the interior upper teeth, well up towards the gums.

The greenish color is due to bacteria present which find lodgment in those areas afforded by the remnant of a dead cuticle which often persists after the eruption of the tooth.

Where "greenstain" is permitted to remain for a considerable time upon these surfaces, the enamel will be found to be "etched" or roughened by dissolution due to an acid which these bacteria produce. Unfortunately, this injury to the tooth substance is permanent.

Now, you can readily understand that these roughened areas will hold food particles and epithelial matter such as are found in a mouth where brushing is neglected—and with resultant decay.

The removal of greenstain had better be left to your dentist, who, by employing some abradant such as pumice, would be able also to smooth and polish these areas and thus check further deposits of this nature.

So, not only, as you see, should greenstain be removed for appearance sake, but also as a prophylactic measure in the prevention of decay.

Time Has Tested It.—Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil has been on the market upwards of fifty years and in that time it has proved a blessing to thousands. It is in high favor throughout Canada and its excellence has carried its fame beyond the seas. If it were double the price it would be a cheap liniment.

Little Helps For This Week

"But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which are asleep, that ye sorrow not, even as others which have no hope."—Thess. iv. 13.

Somewhere is comfort, somewhere faith,

Though thou in outer dark remain; One sweet, sad voice ennobles death. And still for eighteen centuries saith Softly, "Ye meet again."

—James Russel Lowell.

Those who are gone you have. Those who departed loving you, love you still; and you love them always. They are not really gone,—those dear hearts and true,—they are only gone into the next room; and you will presently get up and follow them, and yonder door will be closed upon you, and you will be no more seen.

—William Makepeace Thackeray.

For Catarrh.—It is one of the chief recommendations of Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil that it can be used internally with as much success as it can outwardly. Sufferers from catarrh will find that the Oil when used according to directions will give prompt relief. Many sufferers from this ailment have found relief in the Oil and have sent testimonials.

Of course the fittest survive, as Darwin said. We're all here, aren't we?

Reduce the Acid

Sick stomachs, sour stomachs and indigestion usually mean excess acid. The stomach nerves are over-stimulated. Too much acid makes the stomach and intestines sour.

Alkali kills acid instantly. The best form is Phillips' Milk of Magnesia, because one harmless, tasteless dose neutralizes many times its volume in acid. Since its invention, 50 years ago, it has remained the standard with physicians everywhere.

Take a spoonful in water and your unhappy condition will probably ease in five minutes. Then you will know what to do. Crude and harmful methods will never appeal to you. Go prove this for your own sake. It may save a great many disagreeable hours. Be sure to get the genuine Phillips' Milk of Magnesia prescribed by physicians for 50 years in correcting excess acids. Each bottle contains full directions—any drugstore.

Plans Difficult Climb

Mount McKinley Peak Objective Of Park Superintendent

An attempt to climb Mount McKinley, the highest point in North America, will be made this summer by Harry Karstens, superintendent of Mount McKinley National Park in Alaska.

The Department of the Interior has announced that the attempt would be made in the interest of science to determine whether the Alaska peak is the coldest spot on earth.

Karstens, who climbed the peak with a party of three in 1913, plans to recover a recording thermometer he left on his previous ascent. The mountain is 20,300 feet high.

RHEUMATIC PAINS DUE TO THIN BLOOD

Relief Comes Through the Use Of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills

The most a rheumatic sufferer can hope for in rubbing something on the swollen, aching joints is a little relief, and all the while the trouble is becoming more firmly rooted. It is now known that rheumatism is rooted in the blood, and that as the trouble goes on the blood becomes still further thin and watery. To get rid of rheumatism, therefore, you must go to the root of the trouble in the blood. That is why Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have proved so beneficial when taken for this trouble. They make new, rich blood which expels the poisonous acid and the rheumatism disappears.

There are thousands of former rheumatic sufferers in Canada, now well and strong, who thank Dr. Williams' Pink Pills that they are now free from the aches and pains of this dreaded trouble. One of these Mrs. W. F. Tait, McKellar, Ont., who says:—"I am one of the willing ones to tell you of the great benefits I received from the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. After lying in bed for seven weeks suffering untold agony with inflammatory rheumatism, relief finally came through the use of this medicine. I could not move in bed only as they lifted me, and I could only sleep when opiates were given me. The medical treatment I was taking seemed of no avail. Then I was advised to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and soon I began to get relief. After taking six or eight boxes the rheumatism was banished and I had never felt better in my life. It is several years since this happened and I have had no return of the trouble since. I may add that I recommended the pills to two of my friends who were suffering with rheumatism and the pills were equally effective in both cases."

Try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for anaemia, rheumatism, neuralgia, indigestion or nervousness. Take them as a tonic if you are not in the best physical condition and cultivate a resistance that will keep you well and strong. You can get these pills through any medicine dealer or by mail at 50c a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.
